Case 2:06-cv-00107-MJP Document 24 Filed 02/21/06 Page 2 of 3

1	THIS DAY THIS CAUSE came on to be heard upon the Stipulated Motion of Plaintiff
2	Washington Mutual Bank, a federal association, and Claimants Harbor Enterprises, Inc. d/b/a
3	Petro Marine Services and Shoreside Petroleum, Inc. seeking to consolidate the actions
4	pending in C06-105MJP, C06-106MJP, and C06-107MJP pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 42(a)
5	and this Court, upon consideration thereof, finds that a consolidation of these actions would
6	promote judicial economy and convenience because the three actions all arise under the 7	Admiralty Jurisdiction of this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1333(1) and Rule 9(h) of the
8	Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, share a common plaintiff, and require consideration of
9	common questions of law and fact arising out of an interpretation of federal maritime lien
10	priorities pursuant to Title 46 U.S.C. §§ 31301 through § 31343, inclusive. This Court further
11	finds that the defendant Vessels are sisterships, owned by a common owner, are secured by a
12	common single promissory note and that consolidation will not prejudice the in rem
13	defendants.
14	IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Cause Nos. C06-105MJP,
15	C06-106MJP, and C06-107MJP are hereby consolidated through trial under the single cause

JP, use number C06-105MJP and that the United States District Clerk is directed to amend the docket accordingly.

/s Marsha J. Pechman United States District Court Judge

SO ORDERED this the __21st day of February, 2006.
